The Washington Hotel is located at 5 Curzon Street, in the heart of London’s Mayfair, two minutes walk from DNW’s offices.

The auction takes place in the hotel’s Richmond Suite on the lower ground floor, access to which is via a short flight of stairs leading from the hotel restaurant.

The hotel is a 3-minute walk from the nearest Underground station, Green Park (Piccadilly, Jubilee and Victoria Lines, with links directly to Euston, King’s Cross, Victoria [for Gatwick Airport] and Waterloo stations). It is a 40-minute direct journey from Heathrow Airport.

Numerous buses stop at Green Park station. There is limited meter parking in Curzon Street and nearby streets.
Live Internet Bidding in DNW Rostrum Auctions

DNW’s live internet bidding service is FREE and fully integrated into the company website and back office systems. You may bid in real time, with lots appearing on your computer screen as they are being sold and a live audio feed is provided so that you can listen to the auctioneer. Existing clients may use the service by logging in, but if you are new to us you should ideally register at least 24 hours prior to the start of the auction using the registration facility on our web site. To bid, select the current sale on the Coin Department home page and click on the Live Bidding link. You will need to log in before bidding if you have not already done so. For further details please call us on +44 (20) 7016 1700 or email auctions@dnw.co.uk.

Saleroom Notices

Any saleroom notices pertaining to this auction are automatically posted at the head of the InterNews section on the coin part of the DNW website, www.dnw.co.uk. Prospective bidders are strongly urged to consult this facility before sending bids or bidding online.

Buyers’ Premium

Please note that the buyers’ premium in this sale is 20%.

Catalogue Illustrations and the Internet

Prospective bidders are reminded that the DNW website carries enhanced high-resolution enlarged colour illustrations of all the items illustrated in this catalogue, and almost all other lots of manageable size are also depicted.

Bidding in DNW Auctions

We are pleased to accept bids for items in this auction by several methods, apart from the FREE live internet facility detailed above. A commission form is enclosed with this catalogue for your convenience; this should be completed and mailed to us so that we receive it by the day before the auction. Bids can also be faxed on this form to +44 (20) 7016 1799 up to 18.00 on 28 September. If you are an established DNW client you may bid by email to auctions@dnw.co.uk (we strongly advise that you request email confirmation that your bids have been received before the start of the auction); or you may telephone your bids to us up to 11.00 on 29 September. Alternatively you may bid directly via the Members’ Enclosure on the DNW website until 11.00 on 29 September. Bids placed electronically after that time will not be recognised.

Viewing

All the lots in this auction are available to view, strictly by appointment only, at 16 Bolton Street, on weekdays from 12 to 20 September. All appointments to view MUST be made with the Coin Department by telephoning 020 7016 1700 and no viewing will be possible on 21, 22 or 23 September. The public view is at Bolton Street from 24 to 28 September, from 10.00 to 17.00, and on the auction day, 29 September, from 08.00 until the end of the Sale.

Prices Realised

The hammer prices bid at DNW auctions are posted on the Internet at www.dnw.co.uk in real time. A full list of prices realised appear on our website after 18.00 on each auction day and a resumé of each auction is posted on the website the following day. Telephone enquiries are welcome from 09.00 the following morning. Separate printed price lists are no longer issued.

A COLLECTION OF TREASURY NOTES, THE PROPERTY OF A GENTLEMAN (Part II)

The Celebrated Million Pound Note

4036 One Million Pounds, 30 August 1948. D 000007, on Bank of England watermarked paper. PAYABLE ON DEMAND, signature of E.E. Bridges, Secretary to the Treasury, bottom right, stamped ‘CANCELLED, 6 OCT. 1948, BANK OF ENGLAND’, small hole cancellation through signature. Light creases and some handling otherwise good very fine to about extremely fine and extremely rare

Monies received through the Marshall Aid plan after World War II, were subject to strict accountability. The Treasury had to borrow from the Bank of England on a short term basis to help with the book keeping requested the printing of high value notes. The total order sent to The Bank of England printing works was for Three Hundred Million Pounds in varying denominations, starting from Twenty Five Thousand Pounds. It is believed that the entire issue was subsequently destroyed with the exception of numbers Seven and Eight for One Million Pounds which were presented to the British and American Treasury Secretaries respectively.
An Album of proofs, essays and artist designs, mostly dating from 1819-21, and prepared for presentation to the Bank of England, includes work by Applegath & Cowper, ‘Original’ (10), part and complete essays on Bank watermarked paper and ‘Imitations’ (7) on plain paper, further essays also headed as imitations for Alexander Tilloch (2), Perkins Fairman & Heath (2) with another on Bank paper and further ‘Originals’ from B. & W. Lea, J. Thurston and W. Palmer, plus proof vignettes, scrollwork and examples of machine engraving (49, some printers and artists identified), mostly black and white, but including some colour from Sir William Congreve [75]. Examples have been removed from the album over the years, but many interesting and important examples remain, mostly stuck down on corners, extremely fine or better
